The consistory has been looking into withdrawing from the Reformed Church in America for the purpose of realigning with another denomination. The consistory has voted to move to the Alliance of Reformed Churches pending congregational and various other approvals.

There will be an upcoming congregational meeting to vote to stay with the RCA or move to the Alliance of Reformed Churches (ARC). The date of this meeting is unknown at this time but will be announced, both in the bulletin and from the pulpit, at least two weeks prior to the actual vote. If you have strong feelings EITHER WAY – to stay with the RCA or move to the ARC, please plan on attending this congregational meeting to vote your preference. All members must be present to vote. Only those with valid medical reasons will be allowed to absentee vote. If you have questions or concerns about this decision please talk to a consistory member.
